A Poem

“Do Unto Others as You’d Have Them Do”

*Do unto others as you’d have them do,
A simple rule, profound and true,
For kindness breeds more of its kind,
A virtuous cycle that surely will bind.*

*Treat others with respect and care,
And of the truth, you can be aware,
For every act will find its way,
And bring about a brighter day.*

*A world that’s kind, compassionate, and just,
Where all love and harmony begin to trust,
And hate, anger, and violence fade away,
As hearts are touched by love every day.*

*So, do unto others as you wish done to you,
Give love, kindness, and empathy anew,
For in this way, you’ll create a world,
Where all can live, thrive and unfurl.*

Vision Statement

We are a family united by God’s love: serving, sharing, and growing together. It is our mission to call people into a relationship with Jesus Christ.

Friends in Christ,

What makes a church successful? Is it standing room only on Sunday morning? Maybe a million-dollar budget? Those things are not the criteria of a successful church. God uses a different tape measure for success. God looks at the HEART OF THE CHURCH.

The Apostle Paul wrote to the Thessalonians these wonderful words, “May the LORD make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all” (1 Thess. 3:12).

This is the tape measure of a truly successful church. This is especially accurate when the members and friends of a congregation show the love of Christ to each other and for each other, and especially for those in need of a caring congregation.

Our true challenge can be found also in the words of Micah the prophet, “What does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?” (Micah 6:8). Today is the day to show your HEART to one another!

In Christian Love,

Pastor Karen
